2.01 Borrowing Power: Without limiting the borrowing powers of the Corporation as set forth in the Act, the Board may from time to time on behalf of the Corporation, without authorization of the shareholders:

- (a) borrow money upon the credit of the Corporation;
- (b) issue, re-issue, sell or pledge bonds, debentures, notes or other evidences of indebtedness or guarantee of the Corporation, whether secured or unsecured; bills of exchange or promissory notes made, drawn, accepted or endorsed by or on behalf of the Corporation.

DBH LAW

2.02 Delegation: The Board may from time to time delegate to a committee of the Board, a director or an officer of the Corporation or any other person as may be designated by the Board, all or any of the powers conferred on the Board by the preceding section of this by-law or by the Act to such extent and in such manner as the Board may determine at the time of such delegation.

2.03 Banking Arrangements: The banking business of the Corporation including, without limitation, the borrowing of money and the giving of security therefor, shall be transacted with such banks, trust companies or other bodies corporate or organizations as may from time to time be designated by or under the authority of the Board. 3.02 Cheques, Drafts and Notes: All cheques, drafts or orders for the payment of money and all notes and acceptances and bills of exchange shall be signed by such officer or officers or person or persons, whether or not officers of the Corporation, and in such manner as the Board may from time to time designate by resolution.

DIVISION FOUR

DIRECTORS

4.01 Number: The Board shall consist of the number of directors as fixed by the Articles of Incorporation (the "Articles").

4.02 Election and Term: The election of directors shall take place at each annual meeting of shareholders and all the directors then in office, unless elected for a longer period of time, shall retire but, if qualified, shall be eligible for re-election. The number of directors to be elected at any such meeting shall be the number of directors then in office, or the number of directors whose terms of office expire at the meeting, as the case may be, except that if cumulative voting is not required by the Articles and the Articles otherwise permit, the shareholders may resolve to elect some other number of directors. Where the shareholders adopt an amendment to the Articles to increase the number or minimum number of directors, the shareholders may, at the meeting at which they adopt the amendment, elect the additional number of directors authorized by the amendment. If an election of directors is not held at the proper time, the incumbent directors shall continue in office until their successors are elected. If the Articles provide for cumulative voting each director elected by shareholders (but not directors elected or appointed by creditors or employees) ceases to hold office at the annual meeting of shareholders and every shareholder entitled to vote at an election of directors has the right to cast votes for the directors to be elected equal to the number of votes attached to the shares held by him multiplied by the number of directors he is entitled to vote for, and he may cast all such votes in favour of one candidate or distribute them among the candidates in such manner as he sees fit. If he has voted for more than one candidate without specifying the distribution among such candidates he shall be deemed to have divided his votes equally among the candidates for whom he voted. However, fractions of votes so created will not be counted.

4.03 Removal of Directors: Subject to the Act, the shareholders may by ordinary resolution passed at a meeting specially called for such purpose remove any director from office, except a director elected by employees or creditors pursuant to the Articles or a unanimous shareholder agreement, and the vacancy created by such removal may be filled at the same meeting, failing which it may be filled by the Board. Provided, however, that if the Articles provide for cumulative voting no director shall be removed pursuant to this section where the votes cast against the resolution for his removal would, if cumulatively voted at an election of the full Board, be sufficient to elect one or more directors.

4.04 Qualification: No person shall be qualified for election as a director if he is less than Eighteen (18) years of age; if he is of unsound mind and has been so found by a Court in Canada or elsewhere; if he is not an individual; or if he has the status of a bankrupt. A director need not be a shareholder.

4.05 Consent: No election or appointment of a person as director shall be effective unless;

- (a) he is present at the meeting when he was elected or appointed and did not refuse to act as director; or
- (b) he consents in writing to act as a director before his election or appointment or within ten (10) days thereafter; or
- (c) he acts as a director pursuant to the election or appointment.

4.06 Vacation of Office: A director ceases to hold office when he dies; when he is removed from office by the shareholders or by creditors or employees who elected him, as the case may be; when he ceases to be qualified for election as a director, or when his written resignation is sent to or delivered to the Corporation, or, if a time is specified in such resignation, at the time so specified, whichever is later.

4.07 Committee of Directors: The directors may appoint from among their number one or more committees of directors, however designated, and subject to the Act, may delegate to any such committee any of the powers of the directors. At least twenty-five percent (25%) of the members of any such committee shall be resident Canadians.

4.08 Remuneration and Expenses: The directors shall be paid such remuneration for their services as the Board may from time to time determine. The directors shall also be entitled to be reimbursed for travelling and other expenses properly incurred by them in attending meetings of the Board or any committee thereof or in performance of their duties as directors. Nothing herein contained shall preclude any director from serving the Corporation in any other capacity and receiving remuneration therefor.

4.09 Casual Vacancies and Additional Directors: The directors shall have power from time to time and at any time, to appoint any other person as director, either to fill a casual vacancy or as an addition to the Board, but so that the total number of directors shall not at any time exceed the maximum number fixed by these presents or by a general meeting and at no time shall such directors, so appointed, exceed one-third of the total number of directors then holding office.

4.10 Substitute Directors: A director being absent either temporarily or permanently from Canada may appoint and authorize for a period not exceeding one (1) year from the date of such appointment, any person to attend and vote as fully and effectively as if such director were personally present at any meeting of the directors of the company, and to accept any such notice of such meeting. A person so appointed shall be known as and referred to as a "substitute director". For the purpose of computing a quorum of the Board for any meeting a substitute director attending thereat shall be deemed to be a director. The appointment of a substitute director shall be executed by the director making the appointment. Such appointment may be revoked at any time upon notice to the company. All the foregoing shall, however, be subject to the consent of the other directors of the Corporation or a majority thereof.

DIVISION FIVE

MEETING OF DIRECTORS

5.01 Place of Meeting: Meetings of the Board and of committees of directors (if any) may be held within or outside Canada.

5.02 Notice of Meeting: Notice of the time and place of each meeting of the Board shall be given in the manner provided in Section 13.01 to each director not less than forty-eight (48) hours before the time when the meeting is to be held. A notice of a meeting of directors need not specify the purpose of or the business to be transacted at the meeting except where the Act requires such purpose or business to be specified, including any proposal to:

- (a) submit to the shareholders any question or matter requiring approval of the shareholders;
- (b) fill a vacancy among the directors or in the office of the auditor;
- (c) issue securities;

- (e) purchase, redeem or otherwise acquire shares issued by the Corporation;
- (f) pay a commission for the sale of shares;
- (g) approve a management proxy circular;
- (h) approve a take-over bid circular or director's circular;
- (i) approve any annual financial statements; or
- (j) adopt, amend or repeal by-laws.

Provided, however, that a director may in any manner waive notice of a meeting and attendance of a director at a meeting of directors shall constitute a waiver of notice of the meeting except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the grounds that the meeting is not lawfully called.

For the first meeting of the Board to be held immediately following the election of directors, or for a meeting of the Board at which a director is to be appointed to fill a vacancy in the Board, no notice of such meeting shall be necessary to the newly elected or appointed director or directors in order to legally constitute the meeting, provided that a quorum of the directors is present.

5.03 Adjourned Meeting: Notice of an adjourned meeting of the Board is not required if a quorum was present at the original meeting and if the time and place of the adjourned meeting is announced at the original meeting. Where a meeting is adjourned because a quorum is not present, notice of the time and place of the adjourned meeting shall be given, and the adjourned meeting may proceed with business even though a quorum is not present.

5.04 Regular Meetings: The Board may appoint a day or days in any month or months for regular meetings of the Board at a place and hour to be named. A copy of any resolution of the Board fixing the place and time of such regular meetings shall be sent to each director forthwith after being passed, and forthwith to each director subsequently elected or appointed, but no other notice shall be required for any such regular meeting except where the Act or this by-law requires the purpose thereof or the business to be transacted thereat to be specified.

5.05 Chairman: The Chairman of any meeting of the Board shall be the first mentioned of such of the following officers as have been appointed and who is a director and is present at the meeting: chairman of the Board, managing director or president. If no such officer is present, the directors present shall choose one of their number to be chairman.

5.06 Quorum: Subject to the following section, the quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Board shall consist of a majority of the directors holding office or such greater number of directors as the Board may from time to time determine.

5.07 Quarter Canadian Representation at the Meetings: The Board shall not transact business at a meeting, other than filling a vacancy in the Board, unless at least twenty-five percent (25%) of the directors present are resident Canadians, except where:

- (a) a resident Canadian director who is unable to be present approves in writing or by telephone or other telecommunication facilities the business transacted at the meeting; and
- (b) at least twenty-five percent (25%) of the members present would have been resident Canadians had that director been present at the meeting.

5.08 Voting: Questions arising at any meeting of the Board shall be decided by a majority of votes. In case of an equality of votes the chairman of the meeting, in addition to his original vote, shall have a second or casting vote.

5.09 Meeting by Telephone: If all the directors of the Corporation consent, a director may participate in a meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board by means of such telephone or other communication facilities as permit all persons participating in the meeting to hear each other, and a director participating in such a meeting by such means is deemed to be present at the meeting. Any such consent shall be effective whether given before, during or after the meeting to which it relates and may be given with respect to all meetings of the Board and of committees of the Board.

5.10 Resolution in Lieu of Meeting: Notwithstanding any of the foregoing provisions of this by-law, a resolution in writing signed by all the entitled to vote on that resolution at a meeting of the directors or a committee of directors, if any, is as valid as if it had been passed at a meeting of the directors or the committee of directors, if any.

DBH LAW

DIVISION SIX

PROTECTION OF DIRECTORS, OFFICERS AND OTHERS

6.01 Conflict of Interest: A director or officer shall not be disqualified by his office, or be required to vacate his office, by reason only that he is a party to, or is a director or officer or has a material interest in any person who is a party to, a material contract or proposed material contract with the Corporation or subsidiary thereof. Such a director or officer shall, however, disclose the nature and extent of his interest in the contract at the time and in the manner provided by the Act. Any such contract or proposed contract shall be referred to the Board or shareholders for approval even if such contract is one that in the ordinary course of the Corporation's business would not require approval by the Board or shareholders. Subject to the provisions of the Act, a director shall not by reason only of his office be accountable to the Corporation or to its shareholders for any profit or gain realized from such a contract or transaction, and such contract or transaction shall not be void or voidable by reason only of the director's interest therein, provided that the required declaration and disclosure of interest is properly made, the contract or transaction is approved by the directors or shareholders, and it is fair and reasonable to the Corporation at the time it was approved and, if required by the Act, the director refrains from voting as a director on the contract or transaction and absents himself from the director's meeting at which the contract is authorized or approved by the directors, except attendance for the purpose of being counted in the quorum.

6.02 Limitation of Liability: Every director and officer of the Corporation in exercising his powers and discharging his duties shall act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interest of the Corporation and exercise the care, diligence and skill that a reasonable and prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances. Subject to the foregoing, no director or officer for the time being of the Corporation shall be liable for the acts, receipts, neglects or defaults of any other director or officer or employee or for joining in any receipt or act of conformity, or for any loss, damage, or expense happening to the Corporation through the insufficiency or deficiency of title to any property acquired by the Corporation or for or on behalf of the Corporation or the insufficiency or deficiency of any security in or upon which any of the monies of or belonging to the Corporation shall be placed out or invested or for any loss, conversion, misapplication or misappropriation of or any damage resulting from any dealings with any monies, securities or other assets belonging to the Corporation or for any other loss, damage or misfortune whatever which may happen in the execution of the duties of his respective office or trust or in relation thereto; provided that nothing herein shall relieve any director or officer from the duty to act in accordance with the Act and the regulations thereunder or from liability for any breach thereof. The directors for the time being of the Corporation shall not be under any duty or responsibility in respect of any contract, act or transaction whether or not made, done or entered into the name or on behalf of the Corporation, except such as shall have been submitted to and authorized or approved by the Board.

6.03 Indemnity: Subject to the Act, the Corporation shall indemnify a director or officer, a former director or officer, or a person who acts or acted at the Corporation's request as a director or officer of a body corporate of which the Corporation is or was a shareholder or creditor, and his heirs, executors, administrators and other legal representatives, from and against,

- (a) any liability and all costs, charges and expenses that he sustains or incurs in respect of any action, suit or proceeding that is proposed or commenced against him for or in respect of anything done or permitted by him in respect of the execution of the duties of his office; and
- (b) all other costs, charges and expenses that he sustains or incurs in respect of the affairs of the Corporation, except where such liability relates to his failure to act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Corporation.

The Corporation shall also indemnify such persons in such other circumstances as the Act permits or requires. Nothing in this Section shall limit the right of any person entitled to indemnity to claim indemnity apart from the provisions of this Section.

6.04 Insurance: Subject to the Act, the Corporation may purchase and maintain insurance for the benefit of any person referred to in the preceding section against any liability incurred by him in his capacity as a director or officer of the Corporation or of any body corporate where he acts or acted in that capacity at the Corporation's request.

7.05 Vice-President: During the absence or disability of the president, his duties shall be performed and his powers exercised by the vice-president or, if there are more than one, by the vice-president designated from time to time by the Board or the president; provided, however, that a vice-president who is not a director shall not preside as chairman at any meeting of directors or of a committee of directors. A general manager or manager shall conform to all lawful orders given to him by the Board of the Corporation and shall at all reasonable times give to the directors or any of them all information they may require regarding the affairs of the Corporation. Any agent or employee appointed by a general manager or manager shall be subject to discharge by the Board.

DBH LAW

7.09 Powers and Duties of Other Officers: The powers and duties of all other officers shall be such as the terms of their engagement call for or as the Board, the managing director, or the president may specify. Any of the powers and duties of an officer to whom an assistant has been appointed may be exercised and performed by such assistant, unless the Board otherwise directs.

7.10 Variation of Powers and Duties: The Board may from time to time and subject to the provisions of the Act, vary, add to or limit the powers and duties of any officer.

7.12 Remuneration and Removal: The remuneration of all officers appointed by the Board shall be determined from time to time by resolution of the Board. The fact that any officer or employee is a director or shareholder of the Corporation shall not disqualify him from receiving such remuneration as may be determined. All officers, in the absence of agreement to the contrary, shall be subject to removal by resolution of the Board at any time, with or without cause.

7.13 Agents and Attorneys: The Corporation, by or under the authority of the Board, shall have power from time to time to appoint agents or attorneys for the Corporation in or outside Canada with such powers (including the power to sub-delegate) of management, administration or otherwise as may be thought fit.

If a quorum is not present at the opening of the meeting of shareholders, the shareholders present or represented may adjourn the meeting to a fixed time and place but may not transact any other business.

8.11 Participation in Meeting by Telephone: A shareholder or any other person entitled to attend a meeting of shareholders may participate in the meeting by means of telephone or other telecommunication facilities that permit all persons participating in the meeting to hear each other if all the shareholders entitled to vote at the meeting consent and a person participating in such a meeting by those means is deemed to be present at the meeting.

A proxy shall be acted upon only if, prior to the time so specified, it shall have been deposited with the Corporation or an agent thereof specified in such notice or if, no such time having been specified in such notice, it has been received by the secretary of the Corporation or by the chairman of the meeting or any adjournment thereof prior to the time of voting.

8.14 Joint Shareholders: If two or more persons hold a share jointly, any one of them present in person or duly represented at a meeting of shareholders may, in the absence of the other or others, vote that share; but if two or more of those persons are present in person or represented and vote, they shall vote as one the share jointly held by them.

8.15 Votes to Govern: At any meeting of shareholders every question shall, unless otherwise required by the Articles or by-laws or by law, be determined by a majority of the votes cast on the question. In case of an equality of votes either upon a show of hands or upon a ballot, the chairman of the meeting shall be entitled to a second or casting vote.

8.16 Show of Hands: Subject to the Act, any question at a meeting of shareholders shall be decided by a show of hands, unless a ballot thereon is required or demanded hereinafter provided. Upon a show of hands every person who is present and entitled to vote shall have one (1) vote. Whenever, a vote by show of hands shall have been taken upon a question, unless a ballot thereon is so required or demanded, a declaration by the chairman of the meeting that the vote upon the question has been carried or carried by a particular majority or not carried and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the meeting shall be prima facie evidence of the fact without proof of the number of votes recorded in favour of or against any resolution or other proceeding in respect of the said question, and the result of the vote so taken shall be the decision of shareholders upon the said question.

8.17 Ballots: On any question proposed for consideration at a meeting of shareholders, a shareholder, proxy holder or other person entitled to vote may demand and the chairman may require that a ballot be taken either before or upon the declaration of the result of any vote by show of hands. If a ballot is demanded on the election of a chairman or on the question of adjournment it shall be taken forthwith without an adjournment. A ballot demanded or required on any other question shall be taken in such a manner as the chairman shall direct. A demand or requirement for a ballot may be withdrawn at any time prior to the taking of the ballot. If a ballot is taken each person present shall be entitled, in respect to the shares that he is entitled to vote at the meeting upon the question, to the number of votes as provided for by the Articles or, in the absence of such provision in the Articles, to one vote for each share he is entitled to vote. The result of the ballot so taken shall be the decision of the shareholders upon the question.

8.18 Adjournment: The chairman at a meeting of shareholders may, with the consent of the meeting and subject to such conditions as the meeting may decide, adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place. If a meeting of shareholders at which a quorum is present is adjourned for less than thirty (30) days, it shall not be necessary to give notice of the adjourned meeting, other than by announcement at the time of the adjournment. Subject to the Act, if a meeting of shareholders is adjourned by one or more adjournments for an aggregate of thirty (30) days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given in the same manner as notice for the original meeting. Notice of the time and place of an adjourned meeting shall be given when a quorum was not present at the original meeting. Such adjourned meeting may proceed with business even though a quorum is not present.

8.19 Resolution in Lieu of a Meeting: Notwithstanding any of the foregoing provisions of this by-law a resolution in writing signed by all the shareholders entitled to vote on that resolution at a meeting of shareholders is as valid as if it had been passed at a meeting of the shareholders.

8.20 Only One Shareholder: Where the Corporation has only one shareholder or only one holder of any class or series of shares, the shareholder present in person or duly represented constitutes a meeting of the Company or of that class of shareholders, as the case may be.

TRANSFER OF SECURITIES

10.01 Registration of Transfer: Subject to the Act, no transfer of a share shall be registered in a securities register except upon presentation of the certificate representing such share with an endorsement which complies with the Act made thereon or delivered therewith duly executed by an appropriate person as provided by the Act, together with such reasonable assurance that the endorsement is genuine and effective as the Board may from time to time prescribe, upon payment of all applicable taxes and any reasonable fees prescribed by the Board and upon compliance with such restrictions on transfer as are authorized by the Articles and upon satisfaction of any lien referred to in Section 10.05.

10.02 Transfer Agents and Registrars: The Board may from time to time by resolution appoint or remove one or more transfer agents registered under the Trust Companies Act to maintain a central securities register or registers. A transfer agent or branch transfer agent so appointed may be designated as such or may be designated as a registrar, according to his functions of both registrar and transfer or branch transfer agent. The Board may provide for the registration of the transfer of securities by and in the offices of such transfer agent, or branch transfer agent or registrar. In the event of any such appointment in respect of any of the shares of the Corporation, all share certificates issued by the Corporation in respect to those shares shall be countersigned by or on behalf of one of the said transfer agents, branch transfer agents or registrars, if any as the case may be.

10.03 Securities Registers: A central securities register of the Corporation shall be kept at the designated records office of the Corporation, if any, otherwise the registered office of the Corporation, or at an office or offices of a company or companies registered under the Trust Companies Act as may from time to time be designated by resolution of the Board to act as the Corporation's transfer agent or agents. Branch securities register or registers may be kept either in or outside Canada at such office or offices of the Corporation as the directors may determine, or at the office or offices of such other person or persons or companies as may from time to time be designated by resolution of the directors to act as the Corporation's branch transfer agent or agents. A branch securities register shall contain particulars of securities issued or transferred at the branch. Particulars of each issue or transfer of a security registered in a branch securities register shall also be kept in the corresponding central securities register.

10.04 Deceased Shareholders: In the event of the death of a holder, or of one of the joint holders, of any share, the Corporation shall not be required to make any entry in the securities register in respect thereof or to make any dividend or other payments in respect thereof except upon production of all such documents as may be required by law and upon compliance with the reasonable requirements of the Corporation and its transfer agents.

10.05 Lien for Indebtedness: If the Articles provide that the Corporation shall have a lien on shares registered in the name of a shareholder indebted to the Corporation for any unpaid amount owing on a share issued by the Corporation on the date the Corporation was continued under the Act, such lien may be enforced, subject to the Articles and to any unanimous shareholder agreement, by the sale of the shares thereby affected or by any other action, suit, remedy or proceeding authorized or permitted by law or by equity and, pending such enforcement, the Corporation may refuse to register a transfer of the whole or any part of such shares.

11.01 Dividends: Subject to the Act, the Board may from time to time declare dividends payable to the shareholders according to their respective rights and interest in the Corporation. Dividends may be paid in money or property or by issuing fully paid shares of the Corporation.

11.02 Dividend Cheques: A dividend payable in money shall be paid by cheque to the order of each registered holder of shares of the class or series in respect of which it has been declared, and mailed by prepaid ordinary mail to such registered holder at his address recorded in the Corporation's securities register or registers unless such holder otherwise directs. In the case of joint holders the cheque shall, unless such joint holders otherwise direct, be made payable to the order of all such joint holders and mailed to one of them at his recorded address. The mailing of such cheque as aforesaid, unless the same is not paid on due presentation, shall satisfy and discharge the liability for the dividend to the extent of the sum represented thereby plus the amount of any tax which the Corporation is required to and does withhold.

11.03 Non-Receipt of Cheques: In the event of non-receipt of any dividend cheque by the person to whom it is sent as aforesaid, the Corporation shall issue to such person a replacement cheque for a like amount on such terms as to indemnity, reimbursement of expenses and evidence of non-receipt and of title as the Board may from time to time prescribe, whether generally or in any particular case.

12.02 The Board may from time to time, subject to rights conferred by the Act, determine whether and to what extent and at what time and place and under what conditions or regulations the documents, books and registers and accounting records of the Corporation or any of them shall be open to the inspection of shareholders and no shareholder shall have any right to inspect any document or book or register or account record of the Corporation except as conferred by statute or authorized by the Board or by a resolution of the shareholders.

DIVISION THIRTEEN

NOTICES

13.01 Method of Giving Notices: Any notice or other document required by the Act, the Regulations, the Articles or the by-laws to be sent to any shareholder or director or to the auditor shall be delivered personally or sent by prepaid mail or by telegram or cable or telex to any such shareholder at his latest address as shown in the records of the Corporation or its transfer agent and to any such director at his latest address as shown on the records of the Corporation or in the last notice filed under Section 101 or 108 of the Act, and to the auditor at his business address. The secretary may change or cause to be changed the recorded address of any shareholder, director, office, auditor or member of a committee of the Board in accordance with any information believed by him to be reliable. The signature to any notice to be given by the Corporation may be lithographed, written, printed or otherwise mechanically reproduced.

13.02 Notice of Joint Shareholders: If two or more persons are registered as joint holders of any share, any notice may be addressed to all of such joint holders but notice addressed to one of such persons shall be sufficient notice to all of them.

13.03 Persons Entitled by Death or Operation of Law: Every person who, by operation of law, transfer, death of a shareholder or any other means whatsoever, shall become entitled to any share, shall be bound by every notice in respect of such share which shall have been duly given to the shareholder from whom he derives his title to such share prior to his name and address being entered on the securities register (whether such notice was given before or after the happening of the event upon which he became so entitled) and prior to his furnishing to the Corporation the proof of authority or evidence of his entitlement prescribed by the Act.

13.04 Non-Receipt of Notices: If a notice or document is sent to a shareholder by prepaid mail in accordance with Section 13.01 and the notice or document is returned on three (3) consecutive occasions, it shall not be necessary to send any further notice or document to the shareholder until he informs the Corporation in writing of his new address; provided, always, that the return of a notice of a shareholder's meeting mailed to a shareholder in accordance with Section 13.01 of this by-law shall be deemed to be received by the shareholder on the date deposited in the mail notwithstanding the return of the notice.

13.05 Omissions and Errors: The accidental omission to give any notice to any shareholder, director, officer, auditor or member of a committee of the Board or the non-receipt of any notice by any such person or any error in any notice not affecting the substance thereof shall not invalidate any action taken at any meeting held pursuant to such notice or otherwise founded thereon.

13.06 Signature on Notices: Unless otherwise specifically provided, the signature of any director or officer of the Corporation to any notice or document to be given by the Corporation may be written, stamped, typewritten or printed or partly written, stamped, typewritten or printed.

13.07 Waiver of Notice: Any shareholder, proxyholder, other person entitled to attend a meeting of shareholders, director, officer, auditor, or member of a committee of the Board may at any time waive any notice, or waive or abridge the time for any notice, required to be given to him under the Act, the Regulations thereunder, the Articles, the by-laws or otherwise and such waiver or abridgement, whether given before, during or after the meeting or other event of which notice is required to be given, shall cure any default in the giving or in the time of such notice, as the case may be. Any such waiver or abridgement shall be in writing except a waiver of notice of a meeting of shareholders or of the Board, or of a committee of the Board, which may be given in any manner.

DIVISION FOURTEEN

MISCELLANEOUS

14.01 Directors to Require Surrender of Share Certificates: If the Corporation is continued under the Act, the Board then in office, is hereby authorized to require the shareholders of the Corporation to surrender their share certificates, or such of their share certificates as the directors may determine, for the purpose of cancelling the share certificates and replacing them with new share certificates that are not negotiable securities under the Act. The Board shall act by resolution under this section and shall in its discretion decide the manner in which it shall require the surrender of existing share certificates and the time within which the shareholders must comply with the requirement and the form or forms of the share certificates to be issued in place of the existing share certificates. The Board may take such proceedings as it deems necessary to compel any shareholder to comply with a requirement to surrender his share certificate or certificates pursuant to this section. Notwithstanding any other transfer of shares represented by a share certificate that has not been surrendered pursuant to a requirement under this Section.

14.02 Shareholders' Approval to Amend By-Law #1: When these by-laws have been approved by the shareholders, the Board shall not, without prior approval of the shareholders entitled to vote at an annual meeting of the Corporation, given by ordinary resolution at any general meeting, amend or repeal any provision of this by-law.

14.03 Interpretation: In case of any conflict between this by-law and a unanimous shareholders agreement, whether such unanimous shareholders agreement exists at the coming into force of these by-laws or not, such unanimous shareholder agreement shall prevail.

14.04 Effective Date: This by-law shall come into force upon the issue of the Certificate of Continuance under the Act, or the date the Corporation is incorporated under the Act, as the case may be, or the date on which this by-law is enacted, whichever is later.
